I note also that the D.C's second reference of 31.1.21 was booked in the Secrt on 2.2.21, a day previous to the despatch of our first letter. Since the D.C. has authorised the Dy. Amildar who has placed the order with the firm, I do not think it is advisable to withhold sanction. In communicating sanction, a reservation should however be made that orders should not have been precipitated in anticipation of sanction.

Subject

With reference to the second Member's Query of the 19th Feb: 21, it is submitted that there was a delay of 9 days in shipping and 76 days in completing despatching. The Jan: and Feb: 21 were somewhat very heavy months when there was an abnormal rush of papers, pertaining of an immediate & urgent nature.

Such delays but rarely occur in this Record & that only when there is a great rush of urgent papers for shipping & despatch.

It may also be submitted that the work in this Record is ever on the increase.

The delay under

The rule about the time for typing and issuing typewritten drafts is contained in Art: 197 & 198 of the Office Manual. The time prescribed in the articles is being adhered to as far as possible, and such delays as noticed now are due to there being only one typist in this branch where a large quantity of typing work has to be done. Lengthy notes and fair drafts have the preference almost every day, and a certain amount of delay is unavoidable. The delays are however being avoided as much as possible

Sir,

I have the honour to state that Sri Anjaneyaswami Temple at Kyrmenahalli in Koratagere Sub Taluk has one car of its own. The annual Jatra used to be held with a borrowed car and with the willingness of the owners of the car and to the inconvenience of devotees who attend the Jatra which is now a matter of the past and there are the existing grievances.

An estimate for Rs.2,750/- together with a plan of the car furnished by the manufacturers Messrs. Parry & Co., Bangalore, is hereith submitted for the construction of the car.

I request that you will be pleased to move the Government sanction for the estimate. Since the Jatra of this temple is coming off by the end of January next, the estimate may kindly be sanctioned and the work executed early.
